

This tour visits the middle and upper atmosphere radar (MU radar) that is a major observation facility in the Shigaraki MU Observatory of RISH.

Date: Monday, November 18, 2024

Fare: Free of charge

Note: The maximum group size is 40 persons.
Meeting point is Uji Campus (see below).
Finishing point is Kyoto Station.

Itinerary:

| | |
|-------------|---|
| 13:00 | Depart at Kyoto University's Uji Campus by tour bus |
| 13:00-14:00 | Traveling from Uji to the Shigaraki MU Observatory |
| 14:00-15:30 | MU radar tour |
| 15:50-17:00 | Visiting Oogoya Shigaraki ware shop |
| 18:00 | Arrive at Kyoto station |

MU radar antenna

the first large-scale MST radar with a two-dimensional active phased array antenna system

Completion: 1984

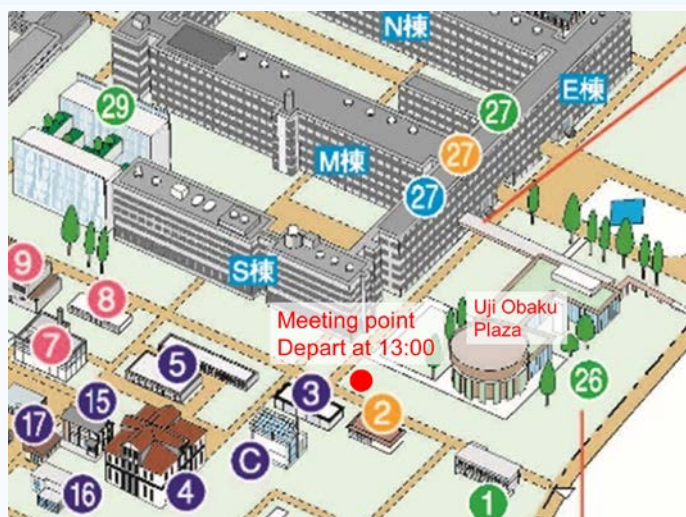

Size: 103 m in diameter

Award: selected as IEEE Milestone

Shigaraki ware shop

Shigaraki is one of the oldest pottery producing places in Japan. Humorous Tanuki (Raccoon dog) figures are a popular product as Shigaraki ware.

Meeting point

Please get on two small buses.